Theme – Valentine’s Day

Description

Love is in the air! Valentine's Day is a special day to celebrate love and affection. It is celebrated in many countries around the world, and falls on February 14th each year. Some people believe that Valentine's Day originated as a Christian holiday, while others believe it has pagan roots. For many people, it is a day to express their love for one another. It can be a friend, family member, significant other, or even pets. It can also be a day for exchanging gifts, enjoying special meals or treats, or simply spending time together. From chocolates and roses to cards and teddy bears, stores are filled with pink and red decorations and products.

It’s really an enchanting moment when you receive thoughtful gifts from your beloved. You can feel the sincerity and the appreciation that is inside those treasured presents. Even just spending precious and valuable time without any gifts is greatly admired. This special day is made even more special by spending it with the people you love most. There's nothing better than surrounding yourself with loved ones and cherish memories on a day that is meant to be celebrated. How would you like to celebrate Valentine’s day?

Whether you're buying flowers, chocolates, or just writing a heartfelt card, a little gesture can go a long way. So why not take this opportunity to spread love? Below are several great and fabulous layouts representing memories shared during this heart-filled with love holiday!

Card Making

Making cards for Valentine’s Day to be given to your loved ones is a tradition that started long ago. These special cards are beautifully handmade by the sender to express love, appreciation and affection to the recipient. Time and effort are poured in making such lovely designs. These usually contain sentimental verse, proclaiming the beauty of the receiver and how much they were loved. Have you written and created a card for a loved one?

Flowers, Chocolates and Gifts

A common thing to do during Valentine’s day is to buy presents for your loved ones. Flowers are a romantic gesture that can show your loved one how much you care. Roses are the most popular flowers on this day. Red roses symbolize love, while white roses symbolize purity. People also give tulips, lilies and daisies on this day. Chocolates are a sweet way to say "I love you" and gifts are a way to show your appreciation. What present would you like to give this Valentine's day?
