

The rain has always been regarded as a blessing. It helps in growing plants and essential crops. Rain also brings in flowers and rainbows that everyone totally enjoys. Without it, there would be no life. Drought will hit every land and will create a devastating effect not just for animals but also for humankind.

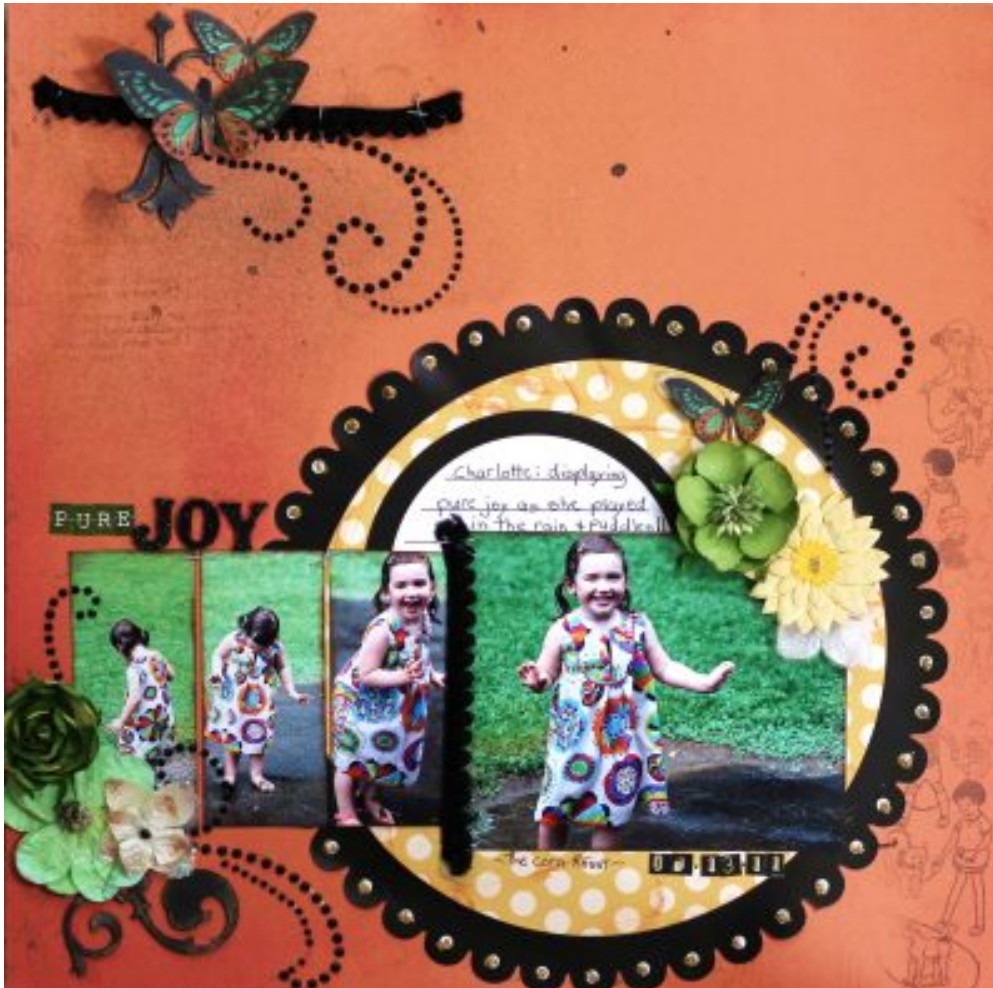

You see, rain plays a vital role on our planet. It's part of a process for sustaining life and growth here on Earth. It also gives us hope and assurance that things can be beautiful once again. And we believe that the season of rain is something worth celebrating so we're sharing these fun layouts to ignite some inspiration for your very own rain-themed projects.

Shower in the rain

Imagine yourself waiting for months and finally getting some rain! You'll probably dance your way outside and enjoy a nice shower in the rain. Have you ever tried that? If not, then probably it's about time!

Puddles

When the rain pours down heavily, then there's one thing to expect...PUDDLES! These small pools of rainwater are such a big hit for kids, teens and sometimes, even adults alike. Can't blame them because it's really fun to jump and have a little splash.
